ROLL OF MEMBERS.

[illegible]

Article 8. — Titles of Address.

In the meetings of the various bodies of the Grand Army of the Republic members shall be addressed only as "Comrades," except when holding office, when they shall be addressed by title of the office in the Grand Army of the Republic which they hold.

Article 9. — Uniform.

SECTION 1. On occasions of ceremony, comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic shall wear the forage cap worn in the service, bearing on the front the letters G. A. R., enclosed in a wreath, and on the top the Corps badge, if any, formerly worn. Posts or Departments making public parades may appear —

1st, in dark citizen's clothes; or,
2d, in the United States Regulation blouse and belt; or 3d, in the uniform worn in the service, at the discretion of the command paraded.

SEC. 2. The National Encampment may prescribe a suitable badge designating membership and official position in the Grand Army of the Republic, to be worn by all comrades when on duty, and may alter the same at their discretion, and no other shall be worn as the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Article 10. — Provisional Departments.

SECTION 1. In States or Territories where the Grand Army of the Republic is not established, the Commander-in-Chief may appoint and cause to be mustered in a Provisional Commander, who shall appoint, with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, from comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, an Assistant Adjutant General and an Assistant Quartermaster General. He may also appoint four Aids-de-camp. The Provisional Commander, the Assistant Adjutant General, the Assistant Quartermaster General, and five comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, selected by the Provisional Commander, shall constitute the Council of Administration. The officers thus appointed have for the time being all the powers and duties of permanent Department officers.

Article 11. — Politics.

SEC. 2. When ten Posts are organized in any provisional Department, the Commander-in-Chief shall order a meeting of a Department Encampment. The Department Encampment, when so assembled, shall effect a permanent Department organization.

Article 12. — Relief Fund.

A relief fund for the assistance of needy soldiers and widows and orphans of deceased soldiers shall be established by the several Posts, and any donations to this fund shall be held sacred for such purpose.

Article 13. — Secrecy.

SECTION 1. The Ritual and unwritten forms of the Grand Army of the Republic, the names of persons causing the rejection of candidates for membership, or any information as to the causes or means of such rejection, and any part of the proceedings of Posts, Department Encampments, or of the National Encampments, not ordered to be published, shall be kept secret.

SEC. 2. Any comrade convicted of divulging any of the private affairs of the Grand Army of the Republic, or of violating any of the provisions of this article, shall be dishonorably discharged.

Article 14. — Alterations and Amendments.

These Rules and Regulations and the Ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic shall only be altered or amended by the National Encampment by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a regular annual meeting thereof. But any section herein may be suspended for the time being, at any annual meeting of the National Encampment, by a unanimous vote.

Post shall not become liable to the payment of his per capita tax, nor shall he be counted in representation to the Department or National Encampment.

SEC. 4. If a comrade shall be one year in arrears, or if after suspension he shall refuse to pay his dues, it shall be the duty of the Quarter-master to prefer charges against him, and of the Post Commander to order a court-martial for his trial.

SEC. 5. The provisions of Sections 3 and 4, of this Article, shall not apply to any comrade in the service of the United States, and on duty at a distance from the Post of which he is a member.

Article 5. — Inspection.

SECTION 1. The Inspector General, immediately after his appointment, shall nominate to the Commander-in-Chief an Assistant Inspector General of the Grand Army of the Republic for each Department.

SEC. 2. The Department Inspector of each Department, immediately after his appointment, shall nominate to the Department Commander as many Assistant Inspectors as may be necessary.

SEC. 3. The Commander of each Department shall, by general order, divide the Department into such a number of Inspection Districts that the Assistant Inspectors can conveniently inspect all the Posts therein; he shall assign one Assistant Inspector to duty in each district, and may change such districts at his discretion.

SEC. 4. Each Assistant Inspector shall make quarterly inspections for all the Posts in his district, and shall report the result of the same to the Department Inspector on blanks similar to Form E. He shall make such additional inspections as may be ordered by proper authority, or as in his opinion may be necessary.

SEC. 5. The Department Inspector shall consolidate the reports of his Assistants, for the information of the Department Commander, and shall furnish copies of such consolidated reports to the Assistant Inspector General of the National Staff for that Department. He may make and order such further inspections in his Department as he may deem necessary.

SEC. 6. The Assistant Inspectors General shall forward to the Inspector General copies of all reports received, to be by him consolidated for the information of the Commander-in-Chief. They shall make inspections, at least quarterly, of the various staff offices of the Department, and shall report the result of the same immediately to the Inspector General, on Form E. They may make and order such other inspections within their Departments as they may deem necessary.

SEC. 7. All books, papers, accounts, records, and proceedings pertaining to the Grand Army of the Republic, shall be subject to inspection at all times by the several inspecting officers in their respective districts.

Article 6. — Discipline.

SECTION 1. Offices cognizable by the Grand Army of the Republic shall be: —

1. Disloyalty to the United States of America, or any other violation of the pledge given at the time of muster.
 2. Disobedience of the Rules and Regulations, or of lawful orders.
 3. The commission of a scandalous offence against the laws of the land.
 4. Conduct unbecoming a soldier and a gentleman, in his relations to the Grand Army of the Republic.
 5. Conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline.
- SEC. 2. Penalties shall be either: —
1. Dishonorable discharge from the Grand Army of the Republic;
 2. Degradation from office;
 3. Suspension from membership for a specified period;
 4. Fine; or,
 5. Reprimand, at the discretion of the court, subject to the review of the proper officer.

SEC. 3. All accusations shall be made in the form of charges and specifications, and shall be tried by courts-martial, composed of members of the Grand Army of the Republic, of the third grade. Courts-martial may be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief, for the trial of alleged offenders, in their respective jurisdictions. Members of Department Encampments and officers of Department Staffs shall only be tried by courts convened by order of the Department Commander, or higher authority. Members of the National Encampment and officers of the National Staff shall only be tried by courts convened by order of the Commander-in-Chief.

SEC. 4. Courts-martial shall be governed in their mode of proceeding and rule of evidence by the Revised United States Army Regulations and established military usage: Provided, however, That in the willful absence of the accused, after due notice of the time and place of trial has been given to him, or left at his last and usual place of abode, the court may proceed in all respects as if he were present, and had pleaded "not guilty."

SEC. 5. All members of the Grand Army of the Republic, when summoned, shall attend as witnesses before any court-martial, and their testimony shall be taken on their honor as comrades. The evidence of persons not members, shall be taken under oath, when not inconsistent with the law of the place where the court is held. Where such extra judicial oaths are forbidden by law, evidence of witnesses not members of the Grand Army of the Republic may be received, in the discretion of the court, on their honor as men; and the fact that they have not been sworn, shall be considered by the court in deciding upon their credibility.

SEC. 6. No sentence of a court-martial shall be carried into execution until after the whole proceedings shall have been laid before the officer ordering the same, or his successor in office, for his confirmation or disapproval and orders in the case; and no sentence of dishonorable discharge from the Grand Army of the Republic, except by a court-martial convened by order of the Commander-in-Chief, shall be carried into execution until after the whole proceedings shall have been laid before the officer ordering the same, or his successor in office, for his confirmation or disapproval, and orders therein.

SEC. 7. Any Comrade ordered for trial before a Post court-martial may request in writing to be tried by a general court, assigning his objections to a trial by the Post Court. On receiving such request, the Post Commander shall forward the same to the Department Commander, with such charges preferred. If the objections appear to be valid and well grounded, the Department Commander shall order a general court-martial for the trial of the case; but if, in his opinion, they shall be insufficient, he shall return the request with an endorsement to that effect, and the trial shall proceed as if no exception had been taken.

SECTION 8. When charges are preferred against any comrade holding office, the Department Commander, or Commander-in-Chief, in their respective jurisdictions, may suspend the accused from office. During the suspension of a Post Commander, or Department Commander, the office shall be filled by the Senior Vice Commander.

Article 7. — Bonds.

SECTION 1. Every Quarter-master shall give bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of his duties.

SEC. 2. Every Assistant Quarter-master General shall give bonds at the rate of fifty dollars for every Post in the Department, with sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of his trust.

SEC. 3. The Quarter-master General shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of his trust.

SEC. 4. The Adjutant General shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of his trust.

SEC. 5. The bonds of the above-named officers shall be approved and held by their respective commanding officers as trustees for their several commands.

Grand Army of the Republic in their possession, or under their control.

Article 7. — Voting.

Each member present at a meeting of the National Encampment, shall be entitled to one vote. The ayes and noes may be required and entered upon record at the call of any three members representing different Departments.

Article 8. — Disbursements.

Disbursements from the Treasury of the National Encampment shall only be in behalf of the objects of the Grand Army of the Republic, or its incidental expenses, and shall be made either by direction of the National Encampment or Council of Administration. All requisitions for money must be drawn by the Adjutant General, and approved by the Commander-in-Chief.

CHAPTER V.

Article 1. — Charters.

SECTION 1. All Post Charters shall be signed by the Commander, and countersigned by the Assistant Adjutant General of the Department within which the applicants for such Charter reside. The application for a Charter shall be signed by at least ten persons eligible to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic, as provided in Chapter 2, Article 1, and shall be accompanied by a Charter fee of ten dollars.

SECTION 2. On the receipt of such application, the Department Commander shall examine the qualifications of the applicants, and, if satisfied of their eligibility, and that it is for the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic to form such Post, he shall, either in person or by some officer of his staff, proceed to admit the applicants into the Grand Army of the Republic, and superintend the election of Post officers for the remainder of the current half-year, and the complete organization of the Post.

SECTION 3. Post Charters may be surrendered voluntarily when less than ten members desire the continuance of the Post, as provided in Chapter 2, Article 1. In case of the surrender of its Charter, the property of the Post shall be immediately turned over to the Assistant Quarter-master General of the Department, and shall be subject to the disposition of the Department Encampment.

SECTION 4. Charters of Departments shall be signed by the Commander-in-Chief, and countersigned by the Adjutant General, and shall be issued to each Department immediately upon the permanent organization thereof.

Article 2. — Returns and Reports.

SECTION 1. Every Post Commander shall make quarterly returns to the Assistant Adjutant General of the Department on the first days of January, April, July, and October, on blanks of Form A. He shall at the same time forward a list of the names of rejected applicants. The name of a person dishonorably discharged should be forwarded at once.

SECTION 2. The Assistant Adjutant General of each Department shall consolidate the quarterly returns of the Posts within twenty days after the beginning of each quarter, for the information of the Department Commander, and shall prepare a copy of such consolidated return to be forwarded by the Department Commander to the Adjutant General on the 20th day of each quarter on blanks of Form C.

SECTION 3. The Adjutant General shall consolidate the returns of Department Commanders for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, and shall present a copy of such consolidated returns to the Annual Session of the National Encampment.

SECTION 4. The Quarter-master of each Post shall make a quarterly return to the Assistant Quarter-master General of the Department, on the first days of January, April, July, and October, on blanks of Form B.

SECTION 5. These returns shall be consolidated by the Assistant Quarter-master General within 20 days after the beginning of each quarter, and such consolidated return shall be forwarded direct to the Quarter-master General, a copy thereof being retained for the information of the Department Commander on blanks of Form D.

SECTION 6. The quarterly returns of Assistant Quarter-master General shall be consolidated by the Quarter-master General for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, and a copy thereof shall be presented by the Quarter-master General to the National Encampment at their annual session.

Article 3. — Dues and Revenue.

SECTION 1. The National Encampment, at its annual session, shall assess a per capita tax on each Department, not exceeding twenty-five (25) cents per annum, on each and every member in good standing therein. Such tax shall be payable in four quarterly instalments, and shall be forwarded by the Department Commander to the Adjutant General on or before the twentieth days of April, July, October, and January. The amount of the quarterly tax due from each Department shall be ascertained from the number of members in good standing therein, reported in the consolidated return made to the Adjutant General on the 20th day of the current quarter.

SECTION 2. Each Department, at its session in January, shall assess a per capita tax on each and every Post in its jurisdiction, not exceeding fifty (50) cents per annum, on each member in good standing therein. This tax shall include the tax due the National Encampment from the Department, and shall be forwarded by the Post Commander to the Assistant Adjutant General, in quarterly instalments, on the tenth days of January, April, July, and October. The amount of the quarterly instalment due from each Post shall be determined by the number of members in good standing therein, reported in the return of the Post Commander made on the first day of the current quarter.

SECTION 3. Each Post, either by its By-Laws, or by vote at the last meeting in December, may assess a per capita tax upon its members, payable, in equal quarterly instalments, on the first days of January, April, July, and October. In addition to the per capita tax, every comrade advanced to the third grade, shall, before taking the obligation thereof, pay the sum of ten cents, as a fee to the National Encampment.

SECTION 4. The Post shall be responsible for these fees, and the amount due shall be forwarded by the Post Commanders to the Assistant Adjutant General, and by the Department Commanders to the Adjutant General, at the same time and in the same manner as other dues are forwarded.

Article 4. — Arrearages.

SECTION 1. Any Department in arrears for reports or dues, shall be deprived of all representation in the National Encampment, until the same are forwarded.

SECTION 2. Any Post in arrears for returns or dues, shall be excluded from all representation in the Department Encampment, until the same are forwarded.

SECTION 3. Any member of a Post who is six months in arrears in the payment of his dues, shall be prohibited from voting; shall be ineligible to any office in the Grand Army of the Republic, and shall be reported, "suspended," in the quarterly reports to Department head-quarters, until such dues are paid. While so suspended, the Post shall not be subject to the per capita tax on such member, and he shall not be counted in the representation of the Post in the National Encampment, nor of the Department in the National Encampment: Provided, however, that when a comrade is unable, by reason of sickness or misfortune, to pay his dues, they may be remitted by a two-thirds vote of the Post of which he is a member, but, by this remission of dues, the

SECTION 1. The National Encampment shall be composed:

1st. Of the Commander-in-Chief, and the other officers named in Article 4, Section 2.

2d. Of the Commanders and Vice Commanders of the several Departments for the time being; and

3d. Of one representative at large from each Department, and one representative for each one thousand members in good standing therein, and one additional representative for a final fraction of more than one-half that number; such representatives to be elected by the Department Encampment from members of the Grand Army of the Republic of the third grade within their jurisdiction. Whenever Posts are in arrears, their entire membership shall be excluded from representation in the National Encampment.

SEC. 2. These representatives shall be elected at the time and in the mode of electing officers of Departments, and their number shall be ascertained and fixed by the last preceding return of members entitled to be counted in representation furnished with credentials signed by the Commander and Assistant Adjutant General of their Department, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Adjutant General immediately after their election.

SEC. 3. Departments in arrears for reports or dues, shall be excluded from representation, for the time being, in the National Encampment.

Article 3. — Meetings.

SECTION 1. The stated meetings of the National Encampment shall be held once in every year, on the second Wednesday in May, at such place as shall have been determined at the previous stated meeting.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be convened by order of the Commander-in-Chief, by and with the advice and consent of the National Council of Administration.

Article 4. — Officers.

SECTION 1. All members of the third grade of the Grand Army of the Republic shall be eligible to any national office in the Grand Army of the Republic.

SEC. 2. The national officers of the Grand Army of the Republic shall be a Commander-in-Chief, a Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, an Adjutant General, an Inspector General, a Quarter-master General, a Judge Advocate General, a Surgeon General, a Chaplain-in-Chief, and a Council one comrade, to be chosen by the National Encampment from each Department.

Article 5. — Election of Officers.

SECTION 1. The national officers of the Republic except the Adjutant General, the Inspector General, the Judge Advocate General, and the Quarter-master General, shall be elected annually by ballot, at the stated meetings of the National Encampment, in the manner prescribed for the election by ballot of officers of Posts in Chapter 2, Article 7, Section 2.

They shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices immediately after the adjournment of the meeting at which they were elected, and shall hold office until their successors are duly installed.

Article 6. — Duties of Officers.

SECTION 1. The Commander-in-Chief shall enforce the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Orders of the National Encampment and Council of Administration, and for this purpose he may issue such orders as may be necessary.

He shall preside in the National Encampment and Council of Administration. He shall decide all questions of law or usage, subject to an appeal to the National Encampment.

SECTION 1. The National Encampment shall be composed:

1st. Of the Commander-in-Chief, and the other officers named in Article 4, Section 2.

2d. Of the Commanders and Vice Commanders of the several Departments for the time being; and

3d. Of one representative at large from each Department, and one representative for each one thousand members in good standing therein, and one additional representative for a final fraction of more than one-half that number; such representatives to be elected by the Department Encampment from members of the Grand Army of the Republic of the third grade within their jurisdiction. Whenever Posts are in arrears, their entire membership shall be excluded from representation in the National Encampment.

SEC. 2. These representatives shall be elected at the time and in the mode of electing officers of Departments, and their number shall be ascertained and fixed by the last preceding return of members entitled to be counted in representation furnished with credentials signed by the Commander and Assistant Adjutant General of their Department, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Adjutant General immediately after their election.

SEC. 3. Departments in arrears for reports or dues, shall be excluded from representation, for the time being, in the National Encampment.

Article 3. — Meetings.

SECTION 1. The stated meetings of the National Encampment shall be held once in every year, on the second Wednesday in May, at such place as shall have been determined at the previous stated meeting.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be convened by order of the Commander-in-Chief, by and with the advice and consent of the National Council of Administration.

Article 4. — Officers.

SECTION 1. All members of the third grade of the Grand Army of the Republic shall be eligible to any national office in the Grand Army of the Republic.

SEC. 2. The national officers of the Grand Army of the Republic shall be a Commander-in-Chief, a Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, an Adjutant General, an Inspector General, a Quarter-master General, a Judge Advocate General, a Surgeon General, a Chaplain-in-Chief, and a Council one comrade, to be chosen by the National Encampment from each Department.

Article 5. — Election of Officers.

SECTION 1. The national officers of the Republic except the Adjutant General, the Inspector General, the Judge Advocate General, and the Quarter-master General, shall be elected annually by ballot, at the stated meetings of the National Encampment, in the manner prescribed for the election by ballot of officers of Posts in Chapter 2, Article 7, Section 2.

They shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices immediately after the adjournment of the meeting at which they were elected, and shall hold office until their successors are duly installed.

Article 6. — Duties of Officers.

SECTION 1. The Commander-in-Chief shall enforce the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Orders of the National Encampment and Council of Administration, and for this purpose he may issue such orders as may be necessary.

He shall preside in the National Encampment and Council of Administration. He shall decide all questions of law or usage, subject to an appeal to the National Encampment.

SEC. 10. The several Staff Officers shall present to the National Encampment, at each annual session, full and detailed reports in writing, of the operations of their respective Departments, and when retiring from office, shall deliver to their successors all money, books, and other property of the SEC. 9. The National Council of Administration shall perform the duties belonging to that office.

SEC. 8. The Judge Advocate General shall perform the duties belonging to that office.

SEC. 7. The Chaplain-in-Chief shall perform such duties in connection with his office as the Commander-in-Chief, or the National Encampment may require of him.

SEC. 6. The Surgeon General shall perform the duties properly appertaining to that office.

SEC. 5. The Quarter-master General shall hold the funds, securities, and vouchers of the National Encampment, and fill all requisitions drawn upon him by the Adjutant General, and approved by the Commander-in-Chief. He shall give good and sufficient security, in a sum to be approved by the Council of Administration, for the faithful discharge of his duties, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the National Encampment may from time to time determine.

SEC. 4. The Inspector General shall perform such duties as are required of him by Chapter 5, Article 5, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the National Encampment may from time to time determine.

SEC. 3. The Quarter-master General shall perform the duties properly appertaining to that office.

SEC. 2. The national officers of the Republic except the Adjutant General, the Inspector General, the Judge Advocate General, and the Quarter-master General, shall be elected annually by ballot, at the stated meetings of the National Encampment, in the manner prescribed for the election by ballot of officers of Posts in Chapter 2, Article 7, Section 2.

They shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices immediately after the adjournment of the meeting at which they were elected, and shall hold office until their successors are duly installed.

Article 6. — Duties of Officers.

SECTION 1. The Commander-in-Chief shall enforce the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Orders of the National Encampment and Council of Administration, and for this purpose he may issue such orders as may be necessary.

He shall preside in the National Encampment and Council of Administration. He shall decide all questions of law or usage, subject to an appeal to the National Encampment.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

We, soldiers and sailors, and honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States, who have consented to this union, having aided in maintaining the honor, integrity, and supremacy of the National Government, during the late rebellion, do unite to establish a permanent association for the objects hereinafter set forth; and, through our National Encampment, do ordain and establish the following rules and regulations for the government of this Association:

CHAPTER I.

Article 1. — Title.

This Association shall be known as the "Grand Army of the Republic."

Article 2. — Objects.

The objects to be accomplished by this organization are as follows:

1. To preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers, sailors, and marines, who united to suppress the late rebellion.
2. To assist such former Comrades-in-arms as need help and protection; and to extend needful aid to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen.

3. To maintain true allegiance to the United States of America, based upon a paramount respect for, and fidelity to, the national Constitution and laws; to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty, incites to insurrection, treason, or rebellion, or in any manner impairs the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions, and to encourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights, and justice to all men.
